Wandsworth Historian no. 106

Autumn 2018

Portrait of the significant local educationalist Grace Fanner by Thomas Cantrell Dugdale.
(Wandsworth Collection / BAC Moving Museum)

An outstanding headmistress and early-twentieth century feminist, the Putney historian who carefully catalogued all the memorials in his local parish church, and the extraordinary proposals in the 1960s that would have turned Wandsworth town centre into a motorway hub: these are just some of the subjects that feature in the latest number of the Wandsworth Historian. Other articles focus on the massive World War One savings drive still vigorously being promoted within weeks of the end of the conflict, and a fascinating recently-discovered photograph of 1880s railway staff at Clapham Junction station.

All this and more in the Autumn 2018 issue of the Wandsworth Historian (ISSN 1751-9225), the journal that brings you the latest research into Wandsworth's past.

The Wandsworth Historian is published by the Wandsworth Historical Society, and copies are available price £3.00 plus £1.50 for postage and packing from WHS, 119 Heythorp Street, London SW18 5BT or by emailing 020neil119@gmail.com.
